THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jeremiah 31 1:7-9 The blind and the lame I will bring back: I will console them.

Pslam 126 "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy."

Hebrews 5:1-6 You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Mark 10:46-52 Master, I want to see.

In the First Reading today, Jeremiah recounts how God has gathered together the people of Israel. God rescues the most vulnerable: "the blind...the lame...mothers...those with child." All are brought to safety in the Lord. God smoothes their path and quenches their thirst. God guides them and consoles them. Rejoice! As we look around today, note how God has gathered all of us together.

- All Saints Day, November 1st: Thursday, November 1st is All Saints Day. All Saints Day is a commemoration of All Holy Martyrs and all the apostles, confessors and all the just and perfect servants of God whose bodies rest throughout the whole world. In the year 835 AD, the Roman Catholic Church made November 1st a church holiday to honor all the saints, known and unknown, and to supply any deficiencies in the faithful's celebration of saint's feasts during the year. All Saints Day is a holyday of obligation; please see the church bulletin for Mass Times. The Church office will be closed on All Saints Day and will reopen on Friday, November 2nd at 9:30 am.

Dear Father, You have given the saints in Heaven eternal happiness and they now live in the fullness of Your Glory. Because of their Holy love for You, they also care about me and my family. Thank you for the gift of their friendship and the witness of their holy lives. I ask our patron saints and every saint who has become especially dear to me to intercede for us. I ask them to help us journey safely on the narrow path that leads to Heaven. O Lord, give us their protection. Grant us their assistance in overcoming temptation and gaining the fullness of life with You. Amen.

- All Souls Day, Friday, November 2nd: Let us remember all those who have died and are with Our Lord. May they Rest in Peace. O God, whose mercies cannot be numbered: Accept our prayers on behalf of thy servants, and grant (him/her) an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the fellowship of thy saints; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
- Save the Date: Our 8th grade graduating class from the school will be conducting a bake sale next weekend.

They can be placed into the containers located at the church entrances. All the food collected will be distributed to Saint Joseph's Food Pantry in Yonkers. Rubero, Rita C. Messar, Angelo P. Morra, Frank Marchese, Walter Sekinski, Leonora Mandell, Nancy E. Fraggos, James Virga, Alphonse Sancimino... have all been called home to God. (From All Souls Day '17- till All Souls Days '18... please excuse any misspellings) Our parish family and all these families have been reminded of the frailty of life and the heart wrenching reality of death... but "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" (1Corinthians 15:55)

What must death be like for those who have no hope? At the time of Saint Paul, Catullus wrote, "When once our brief light sets, there is one perpetual night through which we must sleep." A tombstone epitaph read, "I was not; I became; I am not; I care not." For those without hope, without faith, life is only passing hours, days, years and finally death for all time. For them hope only exists as they live. As their bodies die, so too does their hope.

"We do not want you to be unaware, brothers, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope." (1 Thessalonians 4:13)

Saint Paul is not telling us that "you may not grieve" the loss of your love or your loved one. Saint Paul is helping us to understand that "if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with Him those who have fallen asleep." (1 Thessalonians 4:14) The Paschal Mystery, the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior, has given us more than we will come to know in our lifetime. As this Mystery relates to death, the suffering and death of Jesus on the Cross was not simply for the remission of sins. By facing death, by dying and by rising from the dead, the "sting" of death, the separation from our loved ones for all time has been conquered. "Death is swallowed up in victory... thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (1Corinthians 15:54-57) The Resurrection of Jesus is His victory over death. "We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him." (Romans 6:9) This death of Our Lord was not simply to conquer death but it was to destroy sin... death is the consequence of sin. "As to his death, he died to sin once and for all... Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as (being) dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus." (Romans 6:11) As Jesus has conquered sin through His suffering and death, so must we all. We must rid our lives of all sin and open our hearts and souls to our hope and faith in the Resurrection. "Sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

God love you... Father Fernan
