PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Isaiah 50:4-7 The Suffering Servant speaks to the weary.

Psalm 22 "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

Phillipians 2:6-11 Jesus emptied Himself and God filled this emptiness with exaltation.

Luke 22:14-23:56 The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ or 23:1-49

Listening today to Luke's account of the Passion, we hear of the supreme confidence Jesus has in His Father and His Father's will. Isaiah also exudes confidence in the face of abuse, holding His head high as He places His trust in the Lord GOD. Saint Paul testifies that by humbling Himself and submitting to His Father's will, Jesus was glorified by God the Father. May we also know that confidence in God's will as we listen to God's Word.

We entrust to Your mercy our very lives, our present situation and our uncertain future. We entrust to You the future of the planet, our Church, our nations, our families and all our needs. With loud cries we implore Your mercy on us and the whole world. Look upon us created in Your image and likeness. Great God, we come today to gather and scatter these branches of blessings. With them we remember Jesus' joyous ride into Jerusalem, where the hope of the many were gathered and lifted high. Like those bearing the palms from so long ago, we are gathered in celebration and rejoicing, eager to greet the One who saves. Bless these palms of remembrance and glory. Bless our hearts as we relive the story. And as those who cast their palms and their dreams before a triumphant Christ, may we lay down our lives before You, so that our days would be your pathway and our hearts, your
