As we begin ordinary time in our church, how might the ordinary become extraordinary?

We think of 'ordinary' as boring, routine, un-exciting, something from which we need to escape. Yet, 'ordinary' time is our reality. It is the reality of husbands and wives forging the bond of love that will last a lifetime. It is the reality of parents who try to raise their children so that they have the values that they need to make wise choices in life. It is the reality of workers who do their jobs with honesty, integrity and commitment even when they do not receive a salary that is just, or their working conditions are poor. It is the reality of elderly persons who are alone but who continue to find meaning and value in their lives through prayer, through service to others, through the grace and equanimity with which they accept their situation. Ordinary time is neither glamorous nor exciting. But it is the reality in which we are called to live out our faith.

When we truly live the faith that is ours, the ordinary can become extraordinary. When husbands and wives persevere in love through the hard times that are part of every marriage and their bond of affection and love grows deeper and stronger, their commitment is truly extraordinary in a culture in which divorce is common and has no stigma. When parents make sacrifices for their children and provide them with the love, structure and the discipline that they need, their efforts are truly extraordinary in a culture in which many parents abdicate their responsibility to provide models of mature adulthood. When workers do their jobs with integrity, commitment and honesty regardless of how their employers treat them, their efforts are truly extraordinary in a culture in which workers are often viewed as commodities rather than persons. Elderly persons who persevere with grace, fortitude and determination offer the extraordinary witness of the value of all human life even when that life is fragile and vulnerable. How we choose to live can change the ordinary into something extraordinary.

Let us celebrate 'ordinary time' by making it extraordinary!

Fr. Mark Hallinan, S.J.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

These readings are found complete on our parish web page (www.olmcsi.org). Click on "USCCB Daily Readings."

TODAY: 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 17:17-24
Galatians 1:11-19
Luke 7:11-17

Next Sun: 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Samuel 12:7-10, 13
Galatians 2:16, 19-21
Luke 7:36-8:3

PLEASE DO NOT FORGET THE CARDINAL'S APPEAL!! – It is wonderful that we have reached our goal in donations and pledges. Thank you!! To meet our goal in terms of actual contributions, we will need persons to be faithful to the pledges they have made. The Campaign will send monthly reminders to those who have made a pledge. If you need to pay in cash, simply bring your monthly reminder card and your cash to the parish office. We will send a check. If you haven't made a gift or pledge, there are envelopes in the vestibule of the church. The church will receive a percentage of all the funds that we raise beyond our goal of $25,500. Thank you!

IN THE FINAL STRETCH OF OUR $5,000 RAFFLE! – Can you help sell some tickets to family, friends or colleagues? If you would like tickets to sell, simply request the number of tickets you want either from someone selling them at the door of the church, or in the parish office. We'll take your name, telephone number, and the numbers for the tickets you took. Simply bring them back no later than June 13. Remember that a $50 ticket, you have the chance to win $5,000. We also have $10 share tickets that give you the chance to win $1,000 for each $10 ticket that you buy. The total ticket count is 250. 1-150 are $50 tickets. Tickets 151 through 250 each have 5 shares at $10 per share. Only 250 ticket numbers go into the drawing. If number 140 is drawn, the person with that ticket wins $5,000. If number 165 is drawn, each person who has a share of that number receives $1,000. You have to be in it to win it!

PAPAL EXHORTATION on MARRIAGE – Pope Francis has issued an exhortation on married life and the pastoral response of the Church to those who are married and those living in relationships not blessed by the Church. Courtesy of Fr. James Martin, S.J., we will highlight significant portions of the Pope's work:

Children must be educated in sex and sexuality. In a culture that often commodifies and cheapens sexual expression, children need to understand sex within the "broader framework of an education for love and mutual self-giving" (280). Sadly, the body is often seen as simply "an object to be used" (153). Sex always has to be understood as being open to the gift of new life.

St. JOSEPH HILL ACADEMY SEEKS NEW PRINCIPAL – Founded by the Daughters of Divine Charity, St. Joseph Hill Academy, an all-girls High School of approximately 400 students is seeking a Principal to uphold its mission of preparing its students, academically and spiritually, to become confident young women ready to meet society's challenges. The ideal candidate will be a practicing Roman Catholic with prior relevant experience in school administration, fiscal and strategic planning, and will possess excellent communication skills necessary to interact with the Board of Trustees, faculty, student body, and the Staten Island community. Candidates should hold a Master's Degree. Please send resumes and cover letters to sisterwilliam@gmail.com.

SOLEMN MASS OF REMEMBRANCE – Matthew's Funeral Home is hosting a solemn Mass of remembrance for those whose funerals were served by Matthew's during this past year. The Mass will be at St. Rita's parish on Saturday, June 18, at 1:00 p.m. Please RSVP to Matthew's at: 718-761-5544.

PRAYER FOR THE SUMMER: Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer! Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight. Thank you for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy your creation. May this summer draw me closer to my family and my friends. May this summer also draw me closer to You. Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing. Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your word and counsel. As I enjoy your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You. Amen.

POPE FRANCIS on the WORLD WE ARE to HELP CREATE - What is needed today is a renewed commitment to protect each person in their daily life and to protect their dignity and human rights, their security and their comprehensive needs...There must be no family without a home, no refugee without a welcome, no person without dignity, no wounded person without care, no child without a childhood, no young man or woman without a future, no elderly person without a dignified old age.

WEEKLY OFFERING: May 22: $4,408. Thank you for your support of our parish!

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Both the First Reading and the Gospel tell marvelous stories of young men being raised from the dead! Sometimes we see someone come back to life, someone who has totally changed by the grace of God. St. Paul experienced a total life change! Lifeguards at the pool rescue people from drowning. Maybe you will be called upon to be a lifeguard for another person, not at the swimming pool, but in the life situation in which they find themselves swimming. Are you prepared to respond?

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Ps 30:1)
