CHRIST IS RISEN, ALLELUIA! EASTER 2018

Christ is risen, alleluia. What a joy to wake up on this Sunday as a community of faith to celebrate the Solemnity of Easter. How appropriate it is to sing with the psalmist, "This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad." How wonderful to believe that because of His Resurrection "we too have been raised with Christ". Today is a new day to start again. Darkness, pain and suffering have no place in the life of Jesus any longer, and neither does it in our lives. Easter is the time of light, joy and peace that are the gifts given by the Risen Jesus. Pope Francis tells us about the light that comes from Jesus: "Do not let God's love be reflected only in small flashes of light in our lives. Let us be flooded by the light of your love! That costs, but we have the consolation of God who encourages us and invites us to accept the Risen Jesus with tenderness even when there is darkness in our lives. When there is more darkness, the greater shines the light". Easter is our greatest celebration because as the Book of Acts says, "God raised Jesus on the third day". This new and unprecedented fact in the life of Jesus, the Apostles and some chosen witnesses, actually makes our lives now like them as messengers of a love that is able to surpass even death. We will renew our baptismal promises today. We'll pledge to die to sin that binds us to death and promise that we'll live as the brothers and sisters of the Risen Jesus. Today more than ever we must "seek the things that are above, where Christ is," solidarity and justice with and for the poor. Let us be aware today, as we do in every Eucharist, that our faith is in the One who lives forever. The story of the empty tomb in John's Gospel is more than a reminder of three possible approaches towards the Resurrection. Mary Magdalene was afraid and upset, believing robbers had broken in. Peter, the first to enter the empty tomb, was observant, but confused. John, the disciple whom Jesus loved, "saw and believed". In the verses that follow in John's Gospel, Jesus appears to a distraught Mary Magdalene just outside the tomb and she believes. Later he also appears to Peter, as well as the rest of disciples, and asks Peter to "tend my sheep". Each comes to faith in the Risen Jesus at different times and by different means. Let us pray to the Risen Christ to open our minds so that we can understand when the Gospels say that "Jesus is risen from the dead." With the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Apostles, Mary Magdalene and all witnesses throughout the centuries, let us "ask for the grace to be glad and to rejoice intensely because of the great glory and joy of Christ our (Risen) Lord"

(Spiritual Exercises 221).

HAPPY EASTER - FELICES PASCUAS

HAPPY EASTER! - On this Easter Day, Father Hernan, Father Marc and the Staff of Our Lady of Mount Carmel - Saint Benedicta - Saint Mary of the Assumption Church and Our Lady of Mount Carmel School wish you and your family a blessed Easter Sunday filled the blessings of the Risen Lord. May Christ be with you during this Easter Season and throughout your lives. The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is the source of Christian hope. Let us pray in joyful hope for peace throughout the world and that everyone can fully celebrate Easter. May the hope and the joy of the Risen Christ be with you and your family throughout this Easter Season! God Bless You!

SPECIAL THANK YOU!

A special thank you to all who helped in any way to make this Holy Week and Easter celebration a joy.
We could not possibly have done all that was done without our amazing volunteers (their time & talents).
Your sacrifices and generosity are greatly appreciated.

May God continue to bless you and your families this Easter season and all year long

PROCLAIM THE RISEN CHRIST - On Easter morning everything—the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music—everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today's scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the Resurrection and sing "Alleluia!" In the scriptures today we hear from Peter and Paul and John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John's Gospel account includes Mary of Magdalen, who also was privileged to witness the Resurrection and tell others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday can we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive and active in our lives? Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DePAUL GIVES BACK - Our parish could share in the profits. For each car, truck or van, running or not that is donated the Society will give back to our church $75/$200 per vehicle. Maybe you don't have a vehicle, but a family member, friend or neighbor has an old or neglected vehicle in their driveway that they would like to dispose of. Call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 718 491-2525.
