Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

From the Desk of Rev. Msgr. Hugh J. Corrigan:

I like history and especially enjoy reading in newspapers a specific date and a short summary of an important event. Two such dates are:

July 4, 2017: 200th anniversary of the beginning of the construction of the Erie Canal. It made New York City one of the greatest cities of the world. It opened up Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin to the world. Their grain could now be shipped faster with far less cost to New York Harbor where they could be loaded onto ocean-going freighters.

June 27, 2000 "Genetic code of human life is cracked by scientists. Forty-seven years after the structure of DNA was first discovered, two scientists in the United States sequenced a blueprint of the human genome". This was a wonderful but scary discovery. It has the potential to change humankind. CRISPER technology may one day remove bad genes that are passed down from one generation to another. It could make some previously lethal or debilitating diseases a thing of the past. It can also be used to discriminate against certain people because of their genes. "Gene editing" might be used by unscrupulous nations or commercial companies for their own purposes.

Please be advised that the Rectory Office will be closed on Tuesday, July 4, 2017 in observance of Independence Day.

Collection : the collection for last Sunday, June 25, 2017 was $3,566.00

Second collection today is for the mission co-op-propagation of the Faith.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Gathered here at God's invitation, we are disciples awaiting a word from God. So today we will hear more about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus: We are to love Christ above all, and to take up our cross. Yet we do not do this alone, for we have our community of faith to support us, even if it is only with a cup of cold water. Let us pray today that our sense of discipleship may be strengthened and deepened.

Pope Francis: "Go forth and reach out to all people at the margins of society! Go there and be the Church, with the strength of the Holy Spirit. ."
