

January 28, 2018 Fourth
Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Desk of Rev. Msgr. Hugh J. Corrigan:

“Today marks a very important time here at our parish and across the Archdiocese of New York. This is the official kickoff of the “Cardinal’s Annual Stewardship Appeal”.

Your Gift to the Appeal:

- “ Supports offices, ministries, and programs throughout the Archdiocese that nurture and encourage our journey in faith.
- “ Helps educate our children in our Catholic schools and religious education programs.
- “ Provides for retired priests and religious by giving them the retirement care they deserve after decades of service.
- “ Help to educate our future clergy and prepare them for a life of service .
- “ Helps fund Catholic Charities, which provides loving care to millions of people in the Archdiocese.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time: On the last two Sundays we heard Jesus calling his first disciples. Over the next three Sundays, we will hear stories of Jesus healing the sick and afflicted. He is just beginning his public ministry but as he drives out demons and heals leper, his renown and his popularity increase quickly. In today’s Gospel, Jesus drives out an unclean spirit. The people are astonished, not just at his actions, but also how he taught with such authority.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20: Moses told all the people that the Lord would raise up a prophet among them and put words into his mouth. Whoever does not listen must answer to the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 95:1-2: “If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts!”

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35: Paul encouraged the Corinthians, in view of the times, to remain free of worry and devoted to God.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28: Jesus entered the synagogue to teach. All were amazed because he spoke with such great authority. When unclean spirits obeyed Jesus, the crowd stood in awe.

Collection : the collection for last Sunday, January 21, 2018 was $4,152.00

The second collection today is our monthly Church Property Insurance

Food Collection: Next Sunday we will have our monthly food collection for the needy in our community we ask that you remember them when you do your weekly grocery shopping.

The 2018 Cardinal’s Appeal has begun

“So then, while we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, and especially to those who are of the household of the faith”

— Galatians 6:10

As disciples of Christ, we are called to help one another and be merciful, as Jesus taught us. It is only with your help that the Cardinal’s Appeal continues its good work in our communities. Through our ministries and charities the Cardinal’s Appeal continues to be a beacon of hope for our brothers and sisters in faith.
