From the Pastor's Desk

I received a letter from Bishop Campbell's office regarding the Community Shelter Board (CSB). For the second year in a row, the bishop would like Catholics throughout Franklin County to consider supporting the CSB as we address the issue of homelessness in Columbus. The CSB is an organization that coordinates our city's response to the homeless population. In order to continue their important work, the CSB is asking individuals and families to become Housing Heroes during their "From Homeless to Home" campaign. Money raised during the campaign will fund programs that help men, women, and children secure safe and affordable housing.

On a personal note, I am a monthly donor to the Community Shelter Board. The fact that we have a significant population of homeless living in Columbus is, for me, truly distressing. However, instead of giving small amounts of cash to homeless men and women on the street, I prefer to give to the CSB, an organization that can effectively pave a way out of homelessness for individuals. I believe that the CSB best helps the homeless create and sustain a life that is in accord with their dignity.

If you want more information on the Community Shelter Board, visit www.fromhomelesstohome.org or call our diocesan Office for Social Concerns at 614-241-2540.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Recibí una carta de la oficina del Obispo Campbell sobre Community Shelter Board (CSB). Por segundo año consecutivo, el obispo quiere que los católicos de todo el condado de Franklin consideren apoyar al CSB para tratar la cuestión de la falta de vivienda en Columbus. El CSB es una organización que coordina la respuesta de nuestra ciudad a la población sin hogar. Para continuar su importante trabajo, el CSB está pidiendo a individuos y familias que se conviertan en Héroes de Vivienda en su campaña "From Homeless to Home". El dinero recaudado financiará programas que ayudan a asegurar viviendas seguras y asequibles a hombres, mujeres y niños.

En una nota personal, yo soy un donante mensual del Community Shelter Board. El hecho de que tengamos una población significativa de personas sin hogar en Columbus, para mí es angustiante. Sin embargo, en lugar de dar pequeñas cantidades de dinero a los hombres y mujeres sin hogar en la calle, prefiero dar a la CSB, una organización que puede encontrar una salida a la falta de vivienda. Creo que el CSB ayuda a las personas sin hogar a crear y mantener una vida que esté de acuerdo con su dignidad.

Si desea más información sobre el Community Shelter Board, visite www.fromhomelesstohome.org o llame a nuestra oficina diocesana de Social Concerns al 614-241-2540.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda la semana.
