O God, come to my assistance!
O Lord, make haste to help me.

With these words from Psalm 69 we remember that without the presence of the Lord in our lives we cannot exist, move and/or believe. Only God gives reason to our lives and beings. Only his Divine Life fulfills all our desires and dreams. For that reason, to search for something or someone outside his dimension will take all our strength and efforts, and we will end alone and empty.

As we approach the sacred days of the Passion of the Lord, I invite each one of you to get closer to Our Lord Jesus Christ, to abandon ourselves in His Sacred Wounds, and ask the Almighty Father to make us experience in our souls and bodies the effects and the fruits of Jesus in Calvary.

Let us not be afraid to look at the Cross of Jesus. There we will see how much He has suffered for us, just to make free from slavery and sins, from our temptations and sufferings. The Cross is our Sign, our Love, and our Way to reach Heaven one day. Through the Cross we become imitators and tabernacles of God's divine love. It is from the Cross that we are nourished and fed, until the day go back to embrace God forever.

My dear brothers and sisters, this weekend we celebrate the feast of two wonderful saints very dear to us, Saint Patrick and Saint Joseph. They understood that only in God we exist, move and believe. Let us praise the Lord for his goodness and love.

Happy Saint Patrick's and Saint Joseph's Feast Day.

Your brother in Christ,

Father Esteban

RESPECT LIFE

Wisdom of the Ages...

Tertullian, a Christian writer who died in the third century, wrote the following: "Thus, you read the word of God, spoken to Jeremias: "Before I formed thee in the womb, I knew thee." If God forms us in the womb, He also breathes on us as He did in the beginning: "And God formed man and breathed into him the breath of life." Nor could God have known man in the womb unless he were a whole man. "And before thou camest forth from the womb, I sanctified thee." Was it, then, a dead body at that stage? Surely it was not, for "God is the God of the living and not the dead." - De Anima 26.5 The next Respect Life Holy Hour: Thursday, April 19, 2018 at 7:00pm.

LENTEN MOMENTS

Back by popular demand. Last year, we journeyed through Lent with a series of daily messages. Each video contained a short reflection reminding us of the meaning of Lent. Our Catholic Peekskill team is busy working on a new series. The videos will be available on Catholic Peekskill Facebook page and through our Catholic Peekskill YouTube Channel. You can even choose to have your Lenten Moment delivered to your inbox via e-mail or text message through Flocknote. Last year, over 500 parishioners signed up to receive Lenten Moments this way. Good news! If you signed up last year, you are all set. You will begin to receive the messages on Ash Wednesday. If you haven't signed up, just go to www.flocknote.com/assumptionpeekskill, select Lenten Moments and enter your contact information. Or, you can text PEEKSKILL to 84576. You will receive a text with a link to complete the sign up on your mobile device.
