A Consistent Ethic of Life

"A wide spectrum of issues touches on the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. As Pope John Paul II has reminded us: "Where life is involved, the service of charity must be profoundly consistent. It cannot tolerate bias and discrimination, for human life is sacred and inviolable at every stage and in every situation; it is an indivisible good" (The Gospel of Life, no. 87).

"Among important issues involving the dignity of human life with which the Church is concerned, abortion necessarily plays a central role. Abortion, the direct killing of an innocent human being, is always gravely immoral (The Gospel of Life, no. 57); its victims are the most vulnerable and defenseless members of the human family. It is imperative that those who are called to serve the least among us give urgent attention and priority to this issue of justice" (2001: US Bishops' Pastoral Plan for Pro-life Activities: A Campaign in Support of Life).

"Prefiero una familia con cicatrices, muestra de amor y fidelidad, que una familia maquillada y que no ha sabido de ternura y compasión". No existe el padre perfecto, la madre perfecta, la familia perfecta. Pero los integrantes de una auténtica familia manifiestan su amor en la voluntad de afrontar juntos sus dificultades para salir adelante.

"Custodiar es preocuparse uno del otro en la familia: los cónyuges se guardan recíprocamente y luego, como padres, cuidan de los hijos, y con el tiempo, también los hijos se convertirán en cuidadores de sus padres".

¡Qué distinta sería nuestra sociedad si tuviera más sabor a hogar y a familia!

(Papa Francisco, 19 de marzo del 2013). Catholic.net
