The Red Tent

by Anita Diamant

This book retells and expands on the story of Dinah that appears in Genesis 34.

Dinah is the daughter of Jacob and the sister of Joseph. After her defilement by a prince of Shechem, Dinah's brothers take revenge and kill the prince along with his men.

In this book, Dinah gives a first person account of her life leading up to and after this event. The book vividly brings this Biblical period to life from the eyes of a woman.
