Congratulations to our students from St. Columbanus School who graduated Saturday. I hope what they have learned and experienced will be a firm foundation as they go on to high school.

An important note to all about our weekday Mass schedule: Beginning on September 1, 2016, the 8:30 a.m. Mass (Monday through Friday) will be moved to 9:00 a.m. Saturday morning Mass will remain at 8:30 a.m. The new weekday time will make the traffic flow safely and easily during the school year.

ROBERT CARDINAL SARAH, from Guinea is Prefect of the Congregation for the Divine Worship. He published a powerful document on 12 June 2015 in L'Osservatore Romano about the liturgy, especially the Mass. I invite you to read it for yourselves.

Over the next few weeks I will quote from his article. I hope it will help increase our knowledge and love for the Mass. In the Church, "action is directed to contemplation". The conciliar Constitution invites us to rediscover the Trinitarian origin of the work of the liturgy. Indeed, the Council affirms continuity between the mission of Christ the Redeemer and the liturgical mission of the Church. "Just as Christ was sent by the Father, so also he sent the apostles," so that "by means of sacrifice and sacraments, around which the entire liturgical life revolves" they might "accomplish the work of salvation."

The liturgy in action is thus none other than the work of Christ in action. The liturgy is in its essence action Christi: "the work of Christ the Lord in redeeming mankind and giving perfect glory to God". He is the high priest, the true subject, the true protagonist of the liturgy. If this vital principle is not embraced in faith, one risks reducing the liturgy to a human action, to the community's celebration of itself.

In Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Frank Samoylo

YEAR OF MERCY ~ THROUGH THE HOLY DOOR

The Legion of Mary is making a pilgrimage to the Marian Shrine in Stony Point, New York on Thursday, June 30th. If you would like to join us, we will meet in the upper parking lot at St. Columbanus at 10:00 a.m. For further details, please call Bobbi at 914-737-1416 or Ann at 914-402-4374.

DIVINE MERCY FOR WORLD PEACE

Please join us at 9:00 a.m., after the 8:30 a.m. Mass, to pray the Divine Mercy for world peace. Only through Jesus, with prayer, can peace be achieved.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA STATUE

Next year is the 100th anniversary of the Blessed Mother's apparition to the 3 children at Fatima. At that time, Our Lady told the children to pray the Rosary daily and offer sacrifices for sinners. If her requests were fulfilled, the war would end and sinners would be converted.

St. Columbanus Parish has a statute of the Pilgrim Virgin, Our Lady of Fatima. We hope you and your family will open your hearts and welcome the statue into your home to pray the Rosary with family and friends.

To set up a date, or for more information, please call Bobbi at 914-737-1416, or Ann at 914-402-4374.
