YOU HAVE LIMITED TIME AND RESOURCES, AND JUST
THIS ONE SHORT LIFE ON EARTH. HOW WILL YOU USE IT
TO DO THE MOST GOOD FOR THE MOST PEOPLE?

Today's liturgy brings together several strands of Old Testament expectation to reveal Jesus as Israel's promised Messiah and king, the Lord who comes to feed His people.

Notice the parallels between today's Gospel and First Reading. Both Elisha and Jesus face a crowd of hungry people with only a few "barley" loaves. We hear similar words about how impossible it will be to feed the crowd with so little. And in both the miraculous multiplication of bread satisfies the hungry and leaves food left over.

The Elisha story looks back to Moses, the prophet who fed God's people in the wilderness (see Exodus 16). Moses prophesied that God would send a prophet like him (see Deuteronomy 18:15-19). The crowd in today's Gospel, witnessing His miracle, identifies Jesus as that prophet.

The Gospel today again shows Jesus to be the Lord, the good shepherd, who makes His people lie down on green grass and spreads a table before them (see Psalm 23:1,5).

The miraculous feeding is a sign that God has begun to fulfill His promise, which we sing of in today's Psalm - to give His people food in due season and satisfy their desire (see Psalm 81:17). But Jesus points to the final fulfillment of that promise in the Eucharist. He does the same things He does at the Last Supper - He takes the loaves, pronounces a blessing of thanksgiving (literally, "eucharist"), and gives the bread to the people (see Matthew 26:26). Notice, too, that 12 baskets of bread are left over, one for each of the apostles.

These are signs that should point us to the Eucharist - in which the Church founded on the apostles continues to feed us with the living bread of His body.

In this Eucharist, we are made one body with the Lord, as we hear in today's Epistle. Let us resolve again, then, to live lives worthy of such a great calling.

Yours in Christ,
Scott Hahn

THE DIOCESE OF NASHVILLE CURSILLO Movement is intended to help all Catholics develop a thorough understanding of what it means to fully live a Christian life in all their everyday situations. It provides a method to transform all aspects of society through prayer and the development of small Christian communities.

LAUDATO SI' ON CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME
 On Care for Our Common Home (Laudato Si') is the new appeal from Pope Francis addressed to "every person living on this planet" for an inclusive dialogue about how we are shaping the future of our planet. Read the encyclical in its entirety online at www.usccb.org.

Please continue to pray for Father Michael, he is still having back problems.

Vacation Bible School was a hit this year. Check out the pictures on our website, seastn.com

Religious Education
 Registration forms for the 2015-2016 Religious Ed [CCD] are available on the table in the Vestibule. There will be a cost this year of 10.00 per child. The first day of CCD will be August 23. Please register your child soon so the correct amount of books can be ordered. If you have any questions please call Valerie at 931-721-3769.
 We will have a kindergarten class this year so if you know anyone who is entering Kindergarten this year please let them know.

ANY VOLUNTEERS?
We are all brothers and sisters in Christ. We are all bound together by God. We are all one family! Therefore, we all should help keep God's house running smoothly.
If several people helped out doing a small things....

1. Wash the small altar clothes used during Mass— hand towels, corporals, and purificators. This can be done at your convenience at home. This would need to be done once a week to once every two weeks.
2. Iron the cloths mentioned above. Again, this can be done at your convenience at home. This would need to be done once or twice a month.
3. Water inside and out plants. This needs to be done once a week when it doesn't rain.[for outside plants]
4. Set up for Thursday's Mass.
5. Vacuum the church. Once a week or once every two weeks. [we can switch out weeks]
6. Clean bathrooms and mop hallway and bathrooms
7. Weed the outside flower beds

The smallest action, done with love, is more important than great deeds done for personal glory, gratification or simply out of obedience.
