FATHER KARL'S REFLECTION

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today the Gospel comes from Luke: we hear the beginning of this Gospel. It is interesting that the Gospel is directed toward a person, Theophilus. There is no clear understanding in Tradition nor from scripture scholars concerning this individual. In generic terms Theophilus, when translated from the Greek, means knower of God, or lover of God. Some traditions hold that Theophilus is an actual person, perhaps a Jewish priest who had become a follower of Jesus or even St. Paul's lawyer from the time he was in Rome. Some argue that Theophilus is a generic honorary title. Because the exact meaning of the word cannot be determined we need to think about what it means for us.

So we ask, what does it mean for us to be Theophilus—a knower of God, a lover of God. It seems that this is the most important consideration for us. To be a “lover of God” implies a radical openness to God and to His call in our lives. St. Luke is writing to someone or a group of people who are already interested in Christ—they want to be followers. These are people who are searching for the truth and want to do what is necessary to be faithful disciples.

During Ordinary Time we have the chance to explore and learn more about our faith. We have the opportunity to explore our hunger for the things of God. Each week we have a different theme or aspect of the faith to explore. Let us pray for the courage to continue our spiritual journey.

TERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Hoy el Evangelio viene de Lucas: escuchamos el comienzo de este Evangelio. Es interesante que el Evangelio esté dirigido hacia una persona, Teófilo. No hay un entendimiento claro en la Tradición ni de parte de los expertos en las Escrituras con respecto a este individuo. En términos genéricos, Teófilo, cuando se traduce del griego, significa conocedor de Dios o amante de Dios. Algunas tradiciones sostienen que Teófilo es una persona real, tal vez un sacerdote judío que se había convertido en un seguidor de Jesús o incluso en el abogado de San Pablo desde que este estaba en Roma. Algunos argumentan que Teófilo es un título honorífico genérico. Debido a que el significado exacto de la palabra no puede ser determinado, debemos pensar lo qué significa para nosotros.

Entonces preguntamos qué significa para nosotros ser Teófilo, un conocedor de Dios, un amante de Dios. Parece que considerarlo así es lo más importante para nosotros. Ser un "amante de Dios" implica una apertura radical a Dios y a su llamado en nuestras vidas. San Lucas está escribiendo a alguien o a un grupo de personas que ya están interesadas en Cristo; quieren ser seguidores. Estas son personas que están buscando la verdad y quieren hacer lo que sea necesario para ser discípulos fieles.

Durante el Tiempo Ordinario, tenemos la oportunidad de explorar y aprender más sobre nuestra fe. Tenemos la oportunidad de explorar nuestra hambre por las cosas de Dios. Cada semana tenemos un tema o aspecto diferente de la fe para explorar. Oremos por el valor para continuar nuestro viaje espiritual.
