Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel. As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community Where seekers and their questions are welcomed, Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home, And where people are refreshed, reconciled and renewed.

Think outside the Bottle...

Last February, the Peace & Justice Committee presented a major workshop on:

WATER: THEOLOGY, ETHICS AND THE GLOBAL WATER CRISIS

One of the most important take away messages of this presentation was: Single serve bottled water is environmentally damaging and wasteful. Tap water saves money and dramatically reduces this environmental impact.

New York City's water is healthy, and free! Join the Xavier Peace & Justice campaign to Take Back The Tap!

Watch the bulletin for more information coming soon...

Find beautiful, Fair Trade gifts from around the world & empower women with every purchase.

HandCrafting Justice provides access to Fair Trade markets for unique, handmade goods created by enterprising women in the developing world working to lift themselves and their families out of poverty. By fostering self-reliance, ensuring fair wages, and building support networks, the organization offers far more than Fair Trade: HandCrafting Justice promotes human dignity by empowering women to overcome social and economic injustice.

THE BOOK OF SOULS

Our parish Book of Souls will be present in the sanctuary during the month of November. I encourage you to write the names of your loved ones into the book so we, as a community, can remember them during this sacred month of prayer. Thank you.

Fr. Marina

On Thanksgiving, November 27th, Mass will be held at 10:00am in the Mary Chapel.

"We are grateful for your support each year." (Lynn Lewis, Picture the Homeless director) "Thank you so much for doing this as always! Peace be unto you." (Tyletha Samuels, CVH) "Thanks for all you do." (James Addison, LEFS) "Thank you again for coordinating everything! The gifts we received were absolutely wonderful and could not have come at a better time." (Audrey Bruner, STEPS advocate)

Plenty of children need Christmas joy this year, and we have eight weeks to make their dreams come true. Please contact SFXWomen@aol.com or (917) 297-6804 for the name of a child and bring your unwrapped present to the wrapping party. Pizza and beverages will be served.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

“WE ARE EMPOWERED” WOMEN AND HIV/AIDS

Monday, December 1st

7:00 PM

Observed worldwide on December 1 since 1998, World AIDS Day unites people from around the world to raise awareness of the global AIDS response and join, in solidarity with, the millions of people living with and affected by HIV/AIDS.

On Monday, December 1, 2014 at 7:00 PM, the community of Saint Francis Xavier will commemorate World AIDS Day with a Mass in the main church.

A reflection will be given by our guest: April Watkins-Griffin, Assistant Director of Work Force Development with GMHC.

Please take this time to be with us and pray for those we have lost, for those currently living with HIV/AIDS and that one day we will “Get to Zero”.

TOWARD A CHRISTIAN DAY OF ATONEMENT

On the feast of Yom Kippur, our Jewish sisters and brothers stand before G_d seeking atonement and forgiveness, for themselves, for their neighbors, and for all the world. When all is said and done, only G_d can forgive sin, as the Jewish Law reminds us. From Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur, the Holy Days of Awe, the Jewish people try to amend their behavior and seek forgiveness for wrongs done against God and against other human beings.

It is the spirit of Yom Kippur and the Jewish days of repentance that inspired me several years ago to think of a Christian ritual that would do for Christians what Yom Kippur has done for Jews. In recent Catholic tradition the sacrament of confession has focused only on one's own personal sin. It left out the sins of the community, the sins of the church, and the sins of the world. Confession as a sacrament was not able to address the reasons that bring about poverty, the causes of racial and gender discrimination, the evil of modern day slavery and the roots of war, violence, and atrocities such as the Holocaust. And where it did, it could only do so in terms of individual participation in such evil. The evil itself is much larger than only personal sin.

Our Christian faith insists that the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ has rendered all sin, not simply personal sin, to be finally without power. One can usually name the source of personal sin. And the person can therefore bring his or her sin before G_d seeking the forgiveness that has already been so graciously given to us. But how does one address the forces that assault the quality of our human life, that neglect our fundamental human dignity, that bring about alienation among groups, war among people, violence done to the human journey itself? These too call for the victory of Jesus Christ. These too call for the mercy of our G_d.

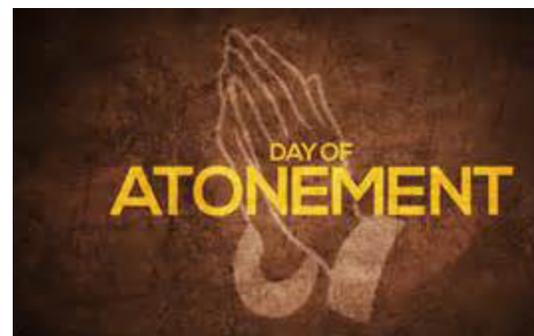

What was needed was a ritual that could reach beyond personal sin and personal forgiveness. A ritual of exorcism on a global rather than personal plane. What was needed was a ritual that would take all forms of evil in the world, whether the source could be named or not, and place them humbly into the loving mercy of G_d who alone would transform them by his own love and mercy.

The ritual we will celebrate on Friday, November 21st, as a Christian Day of Atonement is an attempt to address not only personal sin, but sins of this community, sins of the Church, and sins of the world. It will not attempt to name individuals who might be responsible for such evil, for so much evil in the world is not rooted in an individual or in small groups or factions. Yet it still remains evil and that needs to be addressed by the power of Jesus Christ. It is still evil that needs to be embraced by the love and mercy of our G_d.

The ritual we present brings our own personal sin to G_d for forgiveness. It also brings the sins we commit as a community of faith, the sins of the Church which must honestly be claimed and offered to G_d's endless mercy, and the sins of the world still so divided, still so enmeshed in violence, war and the need to destroy us all. Our symbol is the water of baptism: hands washed, altar made clean, world sprinkled in hope and in blessing. Our gift will be incense burned as a prayer of humble offering to our G_d.

For us, the ritual will be a gesture of faith, a gesture of hope, and a gesture of love that celebrates the victory of Jesus Christ which we honor once again on the feast of Christ the King, and for which we look forward once again through Advent and the blessings of Christmas. So do come and join us on the Day of Christian Atonement, a blessed ending for a year gone by and a blessed beginning of a year yet to come.

*Yours in Christ,
Fr. Peter*
