Mission Statement

The Church of St. Francis Xavier, a Roman Catholic parish in the Jesuit tradition, strives to be a prophetic, welcoming community, and an inclusive witness to the presence of Christ Jesus in our midst. Mindful of our utter reliance on God, and need for God's grace, we rejoice together in our celebration of the sacraments and proclamation of the Gospel.

As a people of hope, we commit ourselves through prayerful and creative discernment to respond to God in our time by: Being a respectful community
Where seekers and their questions are welcomed,
Where injustice is challenged, Where the poor, the alienated and the marginalized find a home,
And where people are refreshed,
reconciled and renewed.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends in Christ,

I offer you my prayers and very best wishes as we celebrate Pentecost, widely considered the birthday of the Church. The word pentecost is derived from the Greek word pentekostos, which means "50." Fifty days have passed since we celebrated Easter, with overflowing crowds once again. And within those days, so much has happened that points to a new descent of the Holy Spirit upon us: the annual celebration of service and ministry fair, the visit of our new pastor Fr. Robert VerEecke, a wonderful interfaith prayer service of mercy, the funeral of Fr. Daniel Berrigan, and now the Confirmation of five cherished young people of our parish who have worked so hard over the course of the past year to be prepared for this next major step in their journey of faith. Our good friend, Auxiliary Bishop Gerald Walsh, will be with us on Sunday as we celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation at our 9am mass. These are just a few examples of how the Spirit is moving among us and all of them fill me with gratitude.

But I would like to get a bit more personal in my thankfulness if that's okay with you. First, thank you for your tremendous outpouring of love and support as I said farewell to my beloved mother last month. As you probably know from my homilies and other remarks, she and I were very close. I enjoyed a similar relationship with my father and found it so consoling when Mom went to the Lord on the same day as Dad (April 2) but fifteen years apart. I had the great privilege of spending two out of the last three weeks of her life with her. As that sacred time unfolded, our wonderful parish staff kept everything running back here at Xavier while you flooded my mailbox and email account with hundreds of messages and the promises of prayer. Because of the sheer number of cards and messages received, I don't think I'll be able to respond to each of you personally. But please don't doubt for a moment how very grateful I am. Thank you, a thousand times over!

Secondly, last week we welcomed our next pastor Bob VerEecke in typical Xavier fashion --with warmth, style, and great enthusiasm. Bob was most impressed by his visit with us and is looking forward to beginning later this summer. Unlike yours truly, he is coming to Xavier with almost 30 years of experience in parish ministry. I know Bob will be a wonderful pastoral presence for all of you. Thank you for welcoming him so sincerely!

Finally, I am very grateful to our ministry leaders for all that they and their ministries accomplished this past year and for what they are planning to do in the year ahead with the help of God's grace. Last Monday night, as we do every year, the ministries gathered in the Mary Chapel and each group took a turn presenting their reports. I've experienced this night three times now yet it never gets old. To the contrary, I find myself so energized by listening to the many ways that you keep Xavier moving forward, in mission, as a parishioner-driven parish!

And so, thank you once again for all that you are and do for Xavier. After three short years, I am leaving with a lifetime of good memories. I will always be grateful for the unmistakable movements of the Spirit among us and for the countless ways you manifest Christ in the world. Happy Pentecost, dear sisters and brothers!

Your servant,

Fr. Marina

FAREWELL CELEBRATION FOR
FR. MARINA & FR. PETER

Monetary free will donations are needed to make this celebration possible and will be greatly appreciated.

Please RSVP to Stephanie at sfuentes@sfxavier.org no later than May 17th.

THE NEW COSMOLOGY AND THE GOD OF LOVE

Sunday, May 22nd

After 9:00am Mass

Xavier High School Library

Presenter: Father Ramon A. Salomone, S.J.

"Yes is my answer to God's invitation"

23RD LGBT ANNIVERSARY MASS AT XAVIER
Friday, May 20th
7:00 PM

All are welcome. With great joy you are invited to share our celebration of the Eucharist, as we are all the Body of Christ for each other. There will be a coffee and cake reception in the Mary Chapel immediately following the Mass.

VISIT OF ALEJANDRO OLAYO MENDEZ, SJ

Alejandro Olayo Mendez, SJ, will visit Xavier and preach at the 11:30am and 5:00pm Masses on Sunday, May 29. Fr. Olayo Mendez is currently reading for a Doctor of Philosophy degree at Oxford in International Development. His research explores the interaction between migrants and humanitarian aid organizations along the Mexican migration corridor. In 2012 and 2015, he led 6 other Jesuits on a five-week, 3000-mile journey through the corridor to better understand the circumstances of migration. The group often slept on the concrete floors of shelters along with the migrants.

After the 11:30am Mass, the Honduras Project and Peace and Justice will host a meeting for discussion with Fr. Olayo Mendez in the East Transept of the church. It is a holiday weekend, but if you are in town, we hope to see you.

SHORT-TERM
APARTMENTS NEEDED

Several reliable members of our parish community are currently searching for affordable studio or 1-bedroom apartments to lease on a short-term basis. They prefer Manhattan but are open to commuting. If you know of an available home, please contact the parish office at your earliest convenience. Thank you for helping our sisters and brothers.

Fr. Marina

PASTORAL COUNCIL

Discernment and Election 2016

Have you ever considered being part of the Pastoral Council? If not, now is the perfect time! Three seats will open soon as Phil Guterrez and Patricia Dahl complete six years of extremely valuable service and one seat is currently vacant. We are immensely grateful for their efforts and welcome new candidates to prayerfully consider serving in their place.

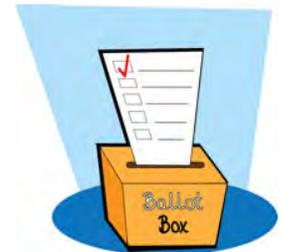

Phil Guterrez

Patricia Dahl

To be considered for election, you must be:

- a baptized Catholic;
- a registered member of the parish for at least two years;
- a participant in the ongoing life of the parish, especially at the Eucharist;
- willing to participate in two evenings of discernment (June 6 and 13);
- a person with a capacity to listen that outweighs the need to speak;
- able to attend a monthly Monday meeting from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.;
- able to attend a three day business meeting/retreat on a weekend in February;
- available for periodic ad hoc committee assignments;
- willing to discontinue or not assume a leadership role in any parish ministry during your tenure on the pastoral council so as to avoid a potential conflict of interest.

All members of the parish are invited to participate in the discernment process for the selection of new council members and all registered parishioners are eligible to vote. However, in order to vote for new council members, parishioners must attend both meetings (June 6 and 13). Membership on the Pastoral Council is a great opportunity to use your gifts in a vitally important role. Please consider whether this is a good time and a proper way for you to serve.
