June 9, 2019 – Pentecost Sunday: Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

“If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language, that goes to his heart.” These words of the late Nelson Mandela have a particular relevance to this weekend’s great feast of Pentecost. For Pentecost is mostly about language, and what the Holy Spirit did with it to launch a Church. Our Church. So rightly do we think of it as the birthday of the Church. Ordinary men were chosen beforehand for an extraordinary mission. Now they were given one of their primary tools to speak to the world about a man who happened to be God in the flesh.

They knew, and we know from the Gospel that this God-Man, Our Lord Jesus Christ, spoke forcefully and prayed intently for unity among peoples. So, it must have come as no surprise, once they stepped back from their initial amazement at the method, to recognize it as the Holy Spirit’s way of supporting their mission and encouraging their faith. Now we moderns know the power of language. In a world suddenly grown smaller from what it was, say 20 or even 10 years ago with the arrival of electronic wizardry, language is still our basic tool of communication. The linguistic arts, in writing and storytelling still are our most popular form of entertainment. But there is another side to language, aside from its slips into slang, that has the power to destroy unity. That is softening the reality, to the point that inhumane activities go unchecked. One widespread example: the use of the words “pro choice” to hide “pro murder of the unborn.” There is another softening device, if you will, that involves using so-called “modal verbs” like “would, could or might” to create a little distance between your honest and true strong opinion and your choice of words to express yourself. It comes with a hope that your listeners will be more receptive to what you say. Nowhere in His discourse did Jesus turn to such words. In fact, His very directness repeatedly got Him in trouble. That is why, in our politically over sensitive context, the mere mention of His name is off-putting for so many people. His Church and her teaching suffer the same disdain.
