Renew + Rebuild is a $200 million archdiocesan-wide Capital Campaign.

74% of all money raised in the parishes will be directed towards their needs, with a special focus on: 1) urgent capital projects and deferred maintenance, 2) energy efficiency initiatives, and 3) financial stability. 26% of parish goals will go toward needy parishes, regional schools, the St. Patrick's Cathedral renovation, Catholic Charities, and evangelization and lay leadership formation.

After much prayer and discussion of our needs, we have developed a plan to provide for a vibrant parish life for our community of faith. This is a wonderful opportunity for St. Mary -Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Our goal is to improve our parish today, while also investing in our future. As we have done time after time, we will demonstrate our love for this parish and the Catholic Church in New York by generously responding to the needs of the Renew + Rebuild campaign.

Tuesday, July 16, 2019 is the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. A special Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated at 9:00 am. All are invited to attend.

July 14, 2019 – Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

For someone who only existed in a story, he has proven to be viable forever. In fact, so alive is he that he could well be referenced in any given TV rush hour traffic report. Just imagine the announcer saying: “The tie-up on Route XYZ West has finally been ended because some GOOD SAMARITAN (My emphasis) stopped to help get the stalled vehicle onto the shoulder of the highway.” That classical good guy, of course, was meant by Our Lord the Storyteller to represent an ideal, certainly not just of Christian love of neighbor, but also that of any good-hearted person of any religious persuasion. The character represents “our better angels.” We combine that thought with the one expressed by Moses in Deuteronomy, namely that the Law is not some high-toned ascetical practice aloof from daily life, and we have the perfect alignment of the Old and New Testaments testifying to the same truth about how to treat others. Note how Our Lord uses a parable to teach a principle. But oh, how His story must have riled the Scribes and Pharisees who heard it that day! Here He was making one of their despised Samaritans the hero! As for that priest who passed by the robbery victim, William Barclay notes that “he was remembering that anyone who touched a dead man was unclean for seven days (Numbers 19:11). He could not be sure but he feared that the man was dead; to touch him would mean losing his turn of duty in the Temple; and he refused to risk that.” Yes, he put ceremonial duties above the claim of charity. But may I ask: Would your duty as an Extraordinary Minister for the 11:00 Mass, for example, keep you from helping an injured person from a car accident on the street outside the church that happened at 10:00? As for that Levite who also passed by. We have to acknowledge that this days travel was perilous. Teams of bandits were using decoys. One of them would play the part of a wounded man. Then, when some unsuspecting traveler came along and stopped to help, the others would jump and overpower him. Better to be safe than sorry. But may I ask: Would helping the victim of a mugging block you from calling 911 because you didn’t want to get involved? And so it goes. There really is nothing new under the sun when it comes to human misbehavior. Only the context changes. But when it suddenly is our problem, the action we take speaks volumes about our character and belief system. This truth is for me at the root of my frustration and anger in the case of these so-called “Catholic politicians” who so smoothly alter or contradict authentic Church teaching on a given issue just because they don’t want to appear unfashionable. I’d rather not be them on Judgment Day.
