RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

APRIL 21, 2019

Dear Parish Family: Today we are filled with joy, for we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord. He died on the cross, but now he has been raised from death to new life. Today we are filled with hope, for the sacrifice he made on the cross has opened the way to eternal life. His sacrifice is our salvation. Today we are filled with praise, for Jesus Christ has won victory over the grave. He has redeemed humanity.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How have I encountered the risen Lord: through God's Word, through prayer? How will I bear witness to these encounters with the risen Lord to others?

From Joey the Seminarian:

Easter Joy, All Rise!

Our joy today is possible because of the journey Jesus made that brought Him to betrayal and suffering, through death to resurrection. To the extent that we are His followers, to the degree that we embrace His teachings, so will we travel the road to Calvary as disciples who carry our cross daily, always in the hope that for those who love God, who are called in His name, all things will work out for good, until that day when each of us experiences his or her own personal Easter. Know that just as Jesus died and rose, so will we too, if we have been faithful to the One who called Himself the Way, the Truth and the Life.

A blessed Easter to all of you and to your families who rejoice in a God who so loved us that He willingly died for us so that we could live forever in that eternal Easter where death is no more!

FAMILY CONNECTION: In the Easter Gospel we hear about how the disciples found the tomb empty three days after Jesus' death. We are also told that they do not yet understand the Scriptures or that Jesus had been raised from the dead. That understanding gradually unfolded for the disciples as they began to experience the risen Lord. Similarly, our understanding of Jesus' Resurrection unfolds for us throughout our lives. In the weeks ahead, we will hear how the first disciples moved from confusion, doubt, and skepticism to faith. Their experience can teach us how we too might receive this gift of faith from God.
