Reflection on the Scriptures

"God formed man to be imperishable; the image of His own nature He made him." —Wisdom 2:23

The Lord wants us to rise from the dead. He will do this by His almighty power, but we must let it be done (see Luke 1:38). We let the Lord raise us from the dead by believing in Him. Jesus told Jairus at the news of his daughter's death: "Fear is useless, only believe" (Mark 5:36, our transl.). At the cemetery following Lazarus' death, Jesus likewise said: "I am the Resurrection and the Life: whoever believes in Me, though he should die, will come to life" (John 11:25-26).

We believe Jesus not only concerning the resurrection, but in everything. We believe Jesus' words that if we feed on His flesh and drink His blood, we have life eternal and will be raised from the dead (John 6:54). We believe that, if we die with Jesus through baptism and daily self-denial, we will live with Jesus forever (see 2 Timothy 2:11). We believe that Jesus baptizes us in the Holy Spirit (Mark 1:8) and we even believe that the Spirit dwelling within us will raise us from the dead (Romans 8:11).

Our resurrection from the dead is part of our salvation in Jesus. Therefore, resurrection is a free gift to be claimed by faith. Let us believe in Jesus and look forward with joy to our deaths. In Jesus, our spirits will rise immediately at our death, and our bodies will rise on the last day when Jesus comes again (Catechism, 997).

THE PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION (June 27-28) unites us in solidarity with the Holy Father and his works of charity toward those who are suffering around the world. Pope Francis reminds us that true power lies not in amassing possessions and resources for ourselves but in giving. "We must never forget that true power, at any level, is service, whose bright summit is upon the Cross . . . it means entering the logic of Jesus who kneels to wash the Apostles' feet," he said. Your contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection join with the power of Christ to give support to those in need.
