

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 17, 2018

The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground it is the smallest of all seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth branches that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade.

Reflection on the Scriptures

"And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the Lord, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom." —Ezekiel 17:24

The Bible begins with the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil (Genesis 2:9). It ends with the trees of life on the banks of the river of life-giving waters in heaven (Revelations 22:1-2). Ezekiel described the Messianic kingdom as a majestic cedar tree on a high mountain (Ezekiel 17:22-23). In contrast, Jesus described His kingdom in a much less impressive way as being like a mustard tree or shrub (Mark 4:32). Finally, the early Church referred to Jesus' cross as a tree (see Acts 13:29).

The cross is the ultimate tree of life bridging Genesis to Revelation, the beginning to the end, earth to heaven, and humanity to God. The tree of the cross is the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecies. It is the means of establishing God's kingdom on earth as it is in heaven. It is the way to enter the kingdom of heaven.
