Reflection on the Scriptures

"Their heart is far from Me." —Mark 7:6

The human heart is:

- tortuous, twisted, deceitful (Jeremiah 17:9),
- beyond repair (Jeremiah 17:9),
- in a state of psychological denial about its fallen condition (see Jeremiah 7:8-9),
- the source of good and evil (see Luke 6:45; Mark 7:21), and
- far away from God (Mark 7:6), when we have the wrong priorities (Luke 12:34).

If, by God's grace and the various "stress tests" of life, we realize that we need new hearts (see Ezekiel 36:26), we have nowhere to turn but to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. He will give us new hearts by giving us new life through the waters of Baptism. If our new hearts have been defiled by our sins, Jesus will purify our hearts by forgiving us, especially in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Also, if our new hearts have been broken by the sins committed against us, He will heal our hearts by giving us His power to forgive.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us. Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us. Sacred Heart of Jesus, make our hearts like Yours (see Matthew 11:29).
