

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 28, 2018

The LORD has delivered his people.
 They departed in tears
 but I will console them
 and guide them.
 I will lead them
 to brooks of water,
 on a level road,
 so that they will not stumble.

Reflection on the Scriptures

" 'Rabboni,' the blind man said, 'I want to see.' Jesus said in reply, 'Be on your way! Your faith has healed you.' Immediately he received his sight and started to follow Him up the road." —Mark 10:51-52

To live God's Word (see James 1:22), we must pray God's Word. I invite you to pray a novena to be free from spiritual blindness. For nine days, pray: "I want to see" (Mark 10:51).

Most Christians believe that other people, including their spouses, family members, neighbors, and fellow workers, need to see much better spiritually. The sin, injustice, abortion, racism, and oppression in our culture of death prove that we live in an epidemic of spiritual blindness. Nevertheless, we find it difficult to believe that we are spiritually blind or even that we have planks in our eyes while others may have only specks in theirs (Matthew 7:5). We are tempted to react like the Pharisees when they said to Jesus: "You are not calling us blind, are You?" (John 9:40)

You may be so holy that you are not spiritually blind. Yet are you certain that you have 20/20 vision spiritually? If you're blind to being blind, you are trapped. If you're not sure you have 20/20 spiritual vision, pray the novena to be freed from spiritual blindness. Try to go to Mass daily or as often as possible. Go to Confession. Pray daily: "I want to see." Invite others to join you. Write and tell us the good news.
