

Ch 23 Assessment

If time travel were possible, you would be able to talk with someone your age who lived in the Mayan civilization. Pretend you are a journalist whose assignment is to interview a Mayan teen who has been deposited in the 21st century. Here are some basic facts you know about the visitor: He or she is 13 years old. He or she comes from a family of farmers.

- Write three questions you would like to ask him or her.
- Make sure your visitor will have to think about your questions to answer them.
- Make sure none of them can be answered with just "yes" or "no."
- Take on the role of the Mayan visitor, and answer the questions. Also answer the fourth question, which has been provided for you.
