1. "REJOICE AND BE GLAD" (Mt 5:12), Jesus tells those persecuted or humiliated for his sake. The Lord asks everything of us, and in return he offers us true life, the happiness for which we were created. He wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence. The call to holiness is present in various ways from the very first pages of the Bible. We see it expressed in the Lord's words to Abraham: "Walk before me, and be blameless" (Gen 17:1).

2. What follows is not meant to be a treatise on holiness, containing definitions and distinctions helpful for understanding this important subject, or a discussion of the various means of sanctification. My modest goal is to repropose the call to holiness in a practical way for our own time, with all its risks, challenges and opportunities. For the Lord has chosen each one of us "to be holy and blameless before him in love" (Eph 1:4).

1. «Alegraos y regocijaos» (Mt 5,12), dice Jesús a los que son perseguidos o humillados por su causa. El Señor lo pide todo, y lo que ofrece es la verdadera vida, la felicidad para la cual fuimos creados. Él nos quiere santos y no espera que nos conformemos con una existencia mediocre, aguada, licuada. En realidad, desde las primeras páginas de la Biblia está presente, de diversas maneras, el llamado a la santidad. Así se lo proponía el Señor a Abraham: «Camina en mi presencia y sé perfecto» (Gn 17,1).

2. No es de esperar aquí un tratado sobre la santidad, con tantas definiciones y distinciones que podrían enriquecer este importante tema, o con análisis que podrían hacerse acerca de los medios de santificación. Mi humilde objetivo es hacer resonar una vez más el llamado a la santidad, procurando encarnarlo en el contexto actual, con sus riesgos, desafíos y oportunidades. Porque a cada uno de nosotros el Señor nos eligió «para que fuésemos santos e irreprochables ante él por el amor» (Ef 1,4).
