SENDING FORTH

FAMILY IDEAS

At the end of Mass, we are sent forth to live our faith. We share in the mission of the church to proclaim to others how much our God loves us and all that God has done for us. We are to live as Jesus taught us and see the face of Jesus in every other person in our lives. There are many people in our world who need help in our communities and in our world. There are many other people who have not yet met Jesus Christ.

Brainstorm ideas that your family can do together to help others. This can include going as a family to meet a new neighbor, donating new craft supplies to a family shelter, or participating in a walk to benefit a children's charity.

Create a kindness corner on your pantry door or other area. When a family member does something nice for someone else, let them put down what they did on a heart and put it on the door. Use heart sticky notes, if available. Watch the good deeds grow.

FAMILY PRAYER

Lord Jesus, help our family show compassion to others. May we witness to your love by the way we live each day. Help us reach out to people in need of a kind word or a helping hand. Guide us to live each day as your disciples. Amen.

NOTE TO FIRST COMMUNION FAMILIES

Plan a family service opportunity that involves your First Communion child. This can be making craft kits for a children's hospital or assembling welcome kits with personal care items for a shelter. Check family service ideas in your local community or in your church.

Follies 2019

Come on down! We would like to invite everyone to be a part of our Follies. This year's theme is "The Great American Game Show." The show will be held July 13th at 7:00 pm in the Family Life Center. There will be food, fun and prizes. Do you have a favorite classic game show that you would like to help recreate? If so, call Ken and Dana Hoover at 901-426-2047, or 662-420-0110.

Ken Hoover

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

62. May the Lord set the Church free from these new forms of gnosticism and pelagianism that weigh her down and block her progress along the path to holiness! These aberrations take various shapes, according to the temperament and character of each person. So I encourage everyone to reflect and discern before God whether they may be present in their lives.

63. There can be any number of theories about what constitutes holiness, with various explanations and distinctions. Such reflection may be useful, but nothing is more enlightening than turning to Jesus' words and seeing his way of teaching the truth. Jesus explained with great simplicity what it means to be holy when he gave us the Beatitudes (cf. Mt 5:3-12; Lk 6:20-23). The Beatitudes are like a Christian's identity card. So if anyone asks: "What must one do to be a good Christian?", the answer is clear. We have to do, each in our own way, what Jesus told us in the Sermon on the Mount. [66] In the Beatitudes, we find a portrait of the Master, which we are called to reflect in our daily lives.

UN LLAMADO A LA SANTIDAD DEL PAPA FRANCISCO.

62. ¡Que el Señor libere a la Iglesia de las nuevas formas de gnosticismo y de pelagianismo que la complican y la detienen en su camino hacia la santidad! Estas desviaciones se expresan de diversas formas, según el propio temperamento y las propias características. Por eso exhorto a cada uno a preguntarse y a discernir frente a Dios de qué manera pueden estar manifestándose en su vida.

63. Puede haber muchas teorías sobre lo que es la santidad, abundantes explicaciones y distinciones. Esa reflexión podría ser útil, pero nada es más iluminador que volver a las palabras de Jesús y recoger su modo de transmitir la verdad. Jesús explicó con toda sencillez qué es ser santos, y lo hizo cuando nos dejó las bienaventuranzas (cf. Mt 5,3-12; Lc 6,20-23). Son como el carnet de identidad del cristiano. Así, si alguno de nosotros se plantea la pregunta: «¿Cómo se hace para llegar a ser un buen cristiano?», la respuesta es sencilla: es necesario hacer, cada uno a su modo, lo que dice Jesús en el sermón de las bienaventuranzas [66]. En ellas se dibuja el rostro del Maestro, que estamos llamados a transparentar en lo cotidiano de nuestras vidas.

WHEN DID I WELCOME YOU?

WHEN YOU DID IT TO THE LEAST.....MT. 25:35ff.

The Priests of the Sacred Heart, the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas (Srs. Emily and Carolyn) and the School Sisters of St. Francis (Srs. Margaret Sue, Rose, Ramona Ann and Julene) are giving substantial financial assistance to the migrants at the border in TX. Sisters of Mercy and Sisters of St. Francis have community members working full time in McAllen, Laredo and Sr. Emily's sister, Sr. Emile, DC (Daughter of Charity) is working in El Paso. All are serving the asylum seekers. Our information from them is first hand reality news. Because detention centers are full, people are being arrested and given a letter which says: You have been arrested, you have permission to travel to where sponsors are, usually family members and you must appear at court on such and such a date.

“What can we do?”

1. PRAY Great idea but prayer usually demands ACTION.
2. Make a donation from a small sacrifice.....Sr. Emily can see that it gets to the right people.
3. GO TO THE BORDER TO HELP- You would need to take your car and stay in a hotel. Sr. Emily has the info if you would like to go to McAllen, TX.
4. Help out at home—Sacred Heart Southern Missions. More information in the gathering space.
5. Go to the MEMPHIS BUS STATION AND HELP OUT.

Planting the Seeds of Good Stewardship in our Children

Each weekend the children are encouraged by the presider to come forward and bring their offerings and place them in the basket on the Altar. Through this practice we want to teach our children how to be good stewards. At the same time, we want to teach our children that our monetary offering is only one way of being good stewards. All that we have comes from a loving God and in gratitude we acknowledge that by offering our time, treasure, and talents to serve God and his people.

FIRST COMMUNION is on May 19th at 4:00 PM at Christ the King, Southaven.
