CHILDREN'S HOMILY Summer Break

DON'T TAKE A VACATION FROM CHURCH

Please don't forget your parish while you are away on vacation. Remember that the day to day operations and expenses continue while you are gone.

CSI – Catholic Service Initiative –

In the past two weeks, 10 youth from our six parishes tiled a bathroom floor, installed new doors, repaired a wheel chair ramp, worked with mobile food pantry and the summer program at Dehon Village. Through their hard work they truly became the hands and feet of Jesus. We are looking forward to next summer's group. It takes many hands to do God's work..... pray about being a volunteer.

We have a beautiful church and we need your help to keep it picked up and cleaned after the masses. Take a few minutes after the Mass has ended to straighten the books and check the area for trash. No food or drink inside! This is our home and should always be clean and welcoming including our restrooms!

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

76. A person who sees things as they truly are and sympathizes with pain and sorrow is capable of touching life's depths and finding authentic happiness. [70] He or she is consoled, not by the world but by Jesus. Such persons are unafraid to share in the suffering of others; they do not flee from painful situations. They discover the meaning of life by coming to the aid of those who suffer, understanding their anguish and bringing relief. They sense that the other is flesh of our flesh, and are not afraid to draw near, even to touch their wounds. They feel compassion for others in such a way that all distance vanishes. In this way they can embrace Saint Paul's exhortation: "Weep with those who weep" (Rom 12:15). Knowing how to mourn with others: that is holiness.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled"

77. Hunger and thirst are intense experiences, since they involve basic needs and our instinct for survival. There are those who desire justice and yearn for righteousness with similar intensity. Jesus says that they will be satisfied, for sooner or later justice will come. We can cooperate to make that possible, even if we may not always see the fruit of our efforts.

UN LLAMADO A LA SANTIDAD DEL PAPA FRANCISCO.

76. La persona que ve las cosas como son realmente, se deja traspasar por el dolor y llora en su corazón, es capaz de tocar las profundidades de la vida y de ser auténticamente feliz [70]. Esa persona es consolada, pero con el consuelo de Jesús y no con el del mundo. Así puede atreverse a compartir el sufrimiento ajeno y deja de huir de las situaciones dolorosas. De ese modo encuentra que la vida tiene sentido socorriendo al otro en su dolor, comprendiendo la angustia ajena, aliviando a los demás. Esa persona siente que el otro es carne de su carne, no teme acercarse hasta tocar su herida, se compadece hasta experimentar que las distancias se borran. Así es posible acoger aquella exhortación de san Pablo: «Llorad con los que lloran» (Rm 12,15). Saber llorar con los demás, esto es santidad.

«Felices los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia, porque ellos quedarán saciados»

77. «Hambre y sed» son experiencias muy intensas, porque responden a necesidades primarias y tienen que ver con el instinto de sobrevivir. Hay quienes con esa intensidad desean la justicia y la buscan con un anhelo tan fuerte. Jesús dice que serán saciados, ya que tarde o temprano la justicia llega, y nosotros podemos colaborar para que sea posible, aunque no siempre veamos los resultados de este empeño.
