A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven”

90. Jesus himself warns us that the path he proposes goes against the flow, even making us challenge society by the way we live and, as a result, becoming a nuisance. He reminds us how many people have been, and still are, persecuted simply because they struggle for justice, because they take seriously their commitment to God and to others. Unless we wish to sink into an obscure mediocrity, let us not long for an easy life, for “whoever would save his life will lose it” (Mt 16:25).

91. In living the Gospel, we cannot expect that everything will be easy, for the thirst for power and worldly interests often stands in our way. Saint John Paul II noted that “a society is alienated if its forms of social organization, production and consumption make it more difficult to offer this gift of self and to establish this solidarity between people”.^[78] In such a society, politics, mass communications and economic, cultural and even religious institutions become so entangled as to become an obstacle to authentic human and social development. As a result, the Beatitudes are not easy to live out; any attempt to do so will be viewed negatively, regarded with suspicion, and met with ridicule.

UN LLAMADO A LA SANTIDAD DEL PAPA FRANCISCO.

«Felices los perseguidos por causa de la justicia, porque de ellos es el reino de los cielos»

90. Jesús mismo remarca que este camino va a contracorriente hasta el punto de convertirnos en seres que cuestionan a la sociedad con su vida, personas que molestan. Jesús recuerda cuánta gente es perseguida y ha sido perseguida sencillamente por haber luchado por la justicia, por haber vivido sus compromisos con Dios y con los demás. Si no queremos sumergirnos en una oscura mediocridad no pretendamos una vida cómoda, porque «quien quiera salvar su vida la perderá» (Mt 16,25).

91. No se puede esperar, para vivir el Evangelio, que todo a nuestro alrededor sea favorable, porque muchas veces las ambiciones del poder y los intereses mundanos juegan en contra nuestra. San Juan Pablo II decía que «está alienada una sociedad que, en sus formas de organización social, de producción y consumo, hace más difícil la realización de esta donación [de sí] y la formación de esa solidaridad interhumana»^[78]. En una sociedad así, alienada, atrapada en una trama política, mediática, económica, cultural e incluso religiosa que impide un auténtico desarrollo humano y social, se vuelve difícil vivir las bienaventuranzas, llegando incluso a ser algo mal visto, sospechado, ridiculizado
