From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Well today is Divine Mercy Sunday, see the information in this bulletin to help learn about this devotion.

Holy Week went well thank God. Masses for Easter were packed, with about the same number as last year.

Thanks are extended to; the altar servers – who serve beginning with Holy Thursday and continue onto Easter Sunday.

We also thank the men who volunteered to have their feet washed at Holy Thursday – that is a part of the liturgy.

Thanks also to the four children who volunteered for the Stations of the Cross, we almost didn't have it this year because of a poor response of volunteers, we will see what kind of response there is next year.

We also thank our lectors, Eucharistic ministers and ushers. Once again the music was beautiful thanks to our musicians, and similarly, the church looks beautiful thanks to hard work of the Rosary Altar Society. And we thank our fire tenders who ensure we have a fire for the Easter Vigil.

As is our tradition here at MPB, during the Easter Season, the statue of the Resurrected Christ is put in place of the Crucifix. After Pentecost Sunday, which marks the end of the Easter Season, the Crucifix will be returned.

And now that we move into the Easter Season, it is good to reflect on the impact of Lent. Did you make an adjustments that have endured? Daily prayer, reading, trying to be Christian in speech? Has there been a separation from some kind of sinful behavior? One of the goals of Lent is that the efforts we make to serve Christ continue beyond Lent. Because an aspect of Lent is to change, to be closer to Christ in our words and actions.

Turning back to the ordinary rhythm of the parish; next Sunday is Donut Sunday, so hopefully we will see you there.

Yours in the Risen Christ,
Fr. Fallon
