Dear Parishioners,

Today is the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, after evening prayer Sunday, the Christmas season comes to an end and we return to ordinary time. Christmas, like Easter is so important, that the celebration is not just one day but a several days which includes certain feast days. The length of the Christmas season varies, based on what day Christmas happens to fall. The old Christmas Carol: The Twelve Days of Christmas is a reminder that Christmas is the beginning of the period called "Christmastide." Again thanks are extended to all those who worked on the Church and those who sent over cookies, cakes, chocolate, etc.; we have a lot of great bakers at M.P.B.

With the return of ordinary time, we fall back into the rhythm of parish life, although this stretch of ordinary time is brief in that Ash Wednesday is February 10.

Another project that we will see again is the Cardinal's Appeal. Soon, many parishioners will be receiving a letter from the Cardinal asking for assistance. I am hopeful that this year, as in the past, the parish will support this worthy cause.

Yours In Christ,
Fr. Fallon

Thanks are extended to all who contributed to the Flower Offering which helped to beautify the Church at Christmas!
