From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Today is a happy day in our parish; Fr. Hartley Bancroft, who was just ordained on Saturday May 28 at St. Patrick's Cathedral, came back to celebrate Mass at MPB. As you might recall, Fr. Hartley was here at MPB as a seminarian for two summers in 2011 and 2012. While he was here he was active at the school, with summer league basketball, the youth group and busy doing odd jobs in the parish like painting, trimming etc. He also helped with daily Mass and Sunday Mass. Fr. Hartley, who is from St. Mary's in Washingtonville, has been assigned to St. Martin de Porres Parish in Poughkeepsie. I hope in due time, a young man from our parish will answer the call to the priesthood. From what I gather, there has never been a vocation to Priesthood from MPB. Granted, Fr. Richard Crawley, who is a Capuchin, grew up at St. Benedict's, but his parish when he was ordained was St. Joseph's in New Paltz. Priests come from faithful families; the inclination to become a priest comes from God, but if a young man is in a faithful family, then there is an opportunity for that vocation to develop and by God's grace, eventually to be fulfilled in the Ordination to the Priesthood. Ad multos annos Fr. Hartley!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Fallon
