

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 3, 2019

PASTOR'S CORNER

It is said, "We live in interesting times!" In some ways, we also live in troubled times and challenging times. However, thanks be to God, because we are united in Christ and inspired by his love and mercy, these are also exciting times for us at All Saints!

There will be a lot of beautiful and exciting things going on in these next months. There is much to be grateful for and much to celebrate! As the priest who serves you here, I never cease to be amazed by the way that God is at work in you, the parishioners of All Saints. The positive energy of God's Kingdom here is palpable and is like a beautiful rushing river as it flows in springtime.

It is important for all of us, individually and as a community, to stay rooted in Jesus' love as his beloved disciples through our times of intimacy with Him in our prayer. With this in mind, let's pray the Lord will bless all the many events that will occur with our help and enthusiasm in these next months, including the following:

- That Man is You
- YLI Red Dress Dinner Dance
- The Factor Retreat
- The Parish Directory
- CSA Retreat
- Our Lenten Mission
- Confirmation Retreat and Confirmation
- First Holy Communion
- First Confessions
- Initiation and Reception of new members at Easter Vigil
- Beginning of Hospitality Ministry
- Stewardship as a Way of Life
- BMA (Bishop's Ministry Appeal)
- Beginning of Construction of expansion of facilities (God willing!)

May good works continue to multiply here!! May strangers be welcomed, may the hungry be fed and the naked be clothed. Maybe elderly be supported and the children be loved. May cold hearts be warmed and warm hearts set afire! May we live in exciting times!!! Above all, may the name of Jesus Christ be praised and glorified in all that we do!!

Fr. Bill
