

ST. MARY MYSTICAL ROSE GUIDING LIGHT

We the faithful of St. Mary Mystical Rose Parish are a Catholic Community in the Archdiocese of Detroit. We serve God through His Begotten Son, Jesus Christ, with the empowerment and the strength of the Holy Spirit: to celebrate the Holy Sacraments and Worship, Christian Service and Faith Education, to evangelize and practice our faith in active stewardship—with the faith, spirit and humility of Mary, the Rose of God and our Patron Saint.

November 6, 2016— Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Heaven's Image!!! (Matthew 5:1-12a; Luke 20:27-38)

The Sermon on the Mount or what we called Beatitude is about “living a blessed life.” Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta (soon to be Saint), St. Pope John Paul II, the Great, St. Faustina of the Divine Mercy, to name a few holy and powerful figures who witnessed and lived the life of God in the world.

Jesus, in the holy Gospel according to Matthew, draws for us the beautiful picture of how the children of God live and what heaven looks like!

When we read the Gospel of Matthew 5:1-12a, and re-read it, think about people in your life who give you an example of what Jesus' teaching is about. Use images of people who model for you the beauty of Jesus' words. It will help you to make the holy words of Jesus become alive.

For example, “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven,” reminds me of one of my Spiritual Directors. He is a holy man, full of wisdom and gentleness. He lives and conducts his life in holy prayers. He reminds me God loves me all the time, therefore, I should love God as well by doing small things with joy and the commitment of my heart to make the Lord happy. Then, work yourself down the list reflect and meditate on the values and the virtues of what Jesus is referring about.

It is worth it to keep these verses from Matthew's Gospel to begin your spiritual journey or your spiritual exercise once a day. Pray and put into prayers the nouns and the rewards offered by our Lord. Make it more meaningful, use your imagination, and let the image becomes more meaningful to you. He invites you into His divine life. As children of God, we must live the blessed life in order for us to live as holy people of God on earth, and make the world a better place.

On the other hand, the holy Gospel of Luke, Jesus responds to the Pharisee and to us is that our union with God in heaven transcends our human understanding. Jesus refers the Pharisees and our own questions of eternal life beyond something more. The declaration that the Lord is “not God of the dead, but of the living” is the truth that Jesus came to proclaim, not only through his teachings and His life, but most of all through His own Resurrection from the dead.

Once we will grasp the message of the divine love of God, then we will understand fully the mystery of the divine life and the resurrection of the living into the holy life in heaven. We must live this life at the here and now, following our faithful and true loving God, and His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Last but not least with the holy guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the prayers of our divine heavenly Mother, Mary. Amen.

Our First Reconciliation Retreat and celebration is November 12 11:00-3pm for our second grade students. Please keep these wonderful children in your prayers as they prepare for this most important Sacrament.

Also, our 7th graders will officially become "Confirmandi" at the 4:30 Mass on November 12 where they will participate in the "Rite of Election". Again, please keep these wonderful young adults in your prayers as they prepare for Confirmation.

We will be commissioning the catechists on Sunday November 20 at the 9:30 Mass. It would be wonderful to have our Faith Formation families make a special effort to attend that Mass!

No class on November 22 or 24 for Thanksgiving break. Regular classes resume November 29.

Faith Formation challenge – During the Month of November we are asking each faith formation child to donate one personal care item – shampoo, conditioner, soap, deodorant, tooth brush or tooth paste or even toilet paper for our St. Mary Mystical Rose Food Pantry.
