Holy Father's Intention for July 2015

Universal: That political responsibility may be lived at all levels as a high form of charity.

Evangelization: That, amid social inequalities, Latin American Christians may bear witness to love for the poor and contribute to a more fraternal society.

Characteristics of a Good Shepherd / 16 Sunday B

A good shepherd leads the sheep; protects them, and does sacrifices for them. Following the model of Jesus the Good Shepherd, let us try to be a good shepherd in the parish, in the family, and in society. As St. Peter says, “When the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory” (1 Peter 5:4), in order to become worthy of receiving the crown of glory, let us try to pick up and follow some of the characteristics of a good shepherd given by a church for our daily living for Jesus.

1. Loves his sheep and develops a close, intimate relationship with them so that they know his voice and trust him.
2. Understands the needs of the sheep better than they do.
3. Understands what threatens the sheep and what makes them sick.
4. Works tirelessly to provide protection and security.
5. Leads them to fresh pastures and fresh water.
6. Searches out the sheep when they stray.
7. Defends the sheep against all their enemies.
8. Provides protection while they sleep.
9. Shears them and examines each one for injury or disease.
10. Goes ahead of the sheep and prepares the path.
11. Disciplines and corrects them.
12. Comforts the sheep when they are hurt or fearful.
13. Keeps the sheep “on the move” so they don’t get into a rut.
14. Liberally anoints them with oil to prevent disease or to heal an injury.
15. Keeps the sheep from fighting and from hurting each other.
16. Cares for, loves the sheep, and sacrifices his life for them.
17. Rejoices in the health, well-being, and prosperity of his flock.
18. Will leave the flock to search for the lost sheep.
19. Experiences great joy in finding the lost sheep.
20. Carries the lambs close to his heart.
21. Gently leads those with young.
22. Gets deepest satisfaction from seeing that the sheep are content, well-fed, and safe.

Prayers and Blessings, Rev. Dr. Lawrence Rasaian, JCD, PhD
