A Year Of Mercy with Pope Francis

October 23

His Way of Life

Jesus' whole life, his way of dealing with the poor, his actions, his integrity, his simple daily acts of generosity, and finally his complete self-giving, is precious and reveals the mystery of his divine life. Whenever we encounter this anew, we become convinced that it is exactly what others need, even though they may not recognize it: "What therefore you worship as an unknown, this I proclaim to you" (Acts 17: 23).

-Evangelii Gaudium

Reflection: This next month commit to reading one of the gospels, little by little each day. Reflect on Jesus' every action and intention. Witness his mercy and ask yourself how you can live out his example in your every day life.

October 24

Spirit-filled Evangelizers

Spirit-filled evangelizers are evangelizers who pray and work... Without prolonged moments of adoration, of prayerful encounter with the word, of sincere conversation with the Lord, our work easily becomes meaningless; we lose energy as a result of weariness and difficulties, and our fervor dies out.

-Evangelii Gaudium

Reflection: We can't give what we don't have. If we don't have an ongoing relationship with God and the mercy he provides, how can we expect to be merciful? Be resolved to set aside time each day just to pray and to find a moment during the day to lift your hearts up to God.

October 25

God Never Ceases to Remember You

And I say to you: If your conscience is weighed down, if you are ashamed of many things that you have done, stop for a moment, do not be afraid. Think about the fact that someone is waiting for you because he has never ceased to remember you; and this someone is your Father, it is God who is waiting for you!... I assure you that you will not be disappointed. Jesus is merciful and never grows tired of forgiving! Remember that this is the way Jesus is.

- Angelus, Nov 3, 2013

Reflection: When you think of Jesus, what comes to mind? Is he angry with you? Condemning? What about merciful? Where in your life do you need to seek forgiveness?
